

NEW COLLEGE BERKELEY

T A P E O R D E R F O R M

Let us walk in newness of life.

2029 Durant Avenue • Berkeley • California 94704

Phone: (510) 841-9386 • Fax: (510) 841-9776

E-Mail: newcollege@aol.com • www.newcollegeberkeley.org

APOLOGETICS

The Appeal of Buddhist Spirituality: A Christian Response (1995)

Leung, Thomas In-Sing

In a diluted, Westernized form, Buddhism has provided the basis for much New Age spirituality and, through many of our writers and artists, has become a presence in our culture. Dr. Leung, formerly a practicing Buddhist, gives us an introduction to Buddhism and his own deeply-reasoned response to it.

Order # TILF95 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Beyond Darwinism and Scientific Materialism (1997)

Johnson, Phillip E.

Phillip Johnson explains how people can apply critical thinking skills to know the difference between scientific evidence and naturalistic philosophy. Dr. Johnson also discusses how the coming decline of Darwinism will impact churches and schools.

Order # PJF97 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Beyond Tolerance: Western Myths about Pluralism (2001)

Ramachandra, Vinoth

Sri Lankan scholar and Christian leader Vinoth Ramachandra challenges us to examine our presuppositions about pluralism and our Western perspective on Christianity.

Order# VVR201 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Christian Apologetics (1993)

Dyrness, William

Theologian William Dyrness makes the case for a new kind of apologetics for the post-modern society.

Order # WDSI93 Suggested Donation $48.00 (8)

The Cosmic Self: A Christian Examination of Today's New Age Movements (1995)

Peters, Ted

Theologian Ted Peters has gained firsthand knowledge of New Age spirituality through years of study and interviews with the movement's leaders and followers. Peters assesses the spiritual hungers that lead people to New Age beliefs.

Order # TPF95 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Evangelism in the Workplace (1997)

Kawasaki, Guy

The "Mac Evangelist" speaks about the art of persuasion.

Order # VGK97 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Finding God at UCB (1997)

Johnson, Phillip

Legal scholar Phillip Johnson tells the story of his discovery of Jesus Christ at the University of California, Berkeley.

Order # VPJ97 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Foundations for Christian Thinking (1998)

Stott, John

Renowned pastor and theologian John Stott illuminates the basic tenets of Christianity, addressing some of the most perplexing questions for believers and unbelievers.

Order # VJS98 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

How is Jesus Relevant? (2001)

Ramachandra, Vinoth

How has Jesus transformed the world through his life, death, resurrection, and influence on his followers? This scholar brings a global and historical perspective to that question.

Order# VVR01 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

The Importance of Truth and Light (1997)

Guinness, Os

Professor Guinness looks at the influential thinkers of our age, the questions they raise, and the answers Christianity provides.

Order # VOG197 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

My Faith Journey (1999)

Rice, Condoleezza

Former Stanford provost, political science professor and current Presidential advisor speaks about her faith.

Order # VCR99 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Reason in the Balance: Is Naturalism the Established Religious Philosophy of America? (1995)

Johnson, Phillip E.

Dr. Johnson shows how scientific naturalism has supplanted traditional religion as the established religious philosophy in America and critiques its dominance of the public forum

Order # PJF95 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Truth, Meaning, and Public Debate (2003)

Johnson, Phillip E.

Dr. Johnson encourages us to challenge the dominant worldview of Naturalism and learn how to ask the right questions.

Order# PJT03 Suggested Donation $12.00 (2)

Wedge of Truth (2000)

Johnson, Phillip E.

Professor Phillip Johnson argues that the Christian gospel must play a role in building a new foundation for thinking about science, religion, and everything that gives human life hope and meaning.

Order # PJF0 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

APPLIED THEOLOGY

Applying Scripture in Everyday Life (2002)

Labberton, Mark

New Testament scholar Labberton reflects on how our time with Scripture might be more significant and rewarding in our walk with God.

Order# MLSU02 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

Biblical Resources for Families (2002)

Palmer, Earl

Pastor Palmer discusses Scriptural foundations for families at all stages of life and the ways in which all of us are called to build up the families to which we belong.

Order# EPSP02 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

Consecrated Chicken Soup: The Sanctifying Grace of Motherhood (1997)

Phillips, Susan S.

Everyday parenting abounds with consecrated acts of love that shape children and their parents. Motherhood is illuminated as a path of sanctification on the Christian journey.

Order # VSP97 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Contemporary Challenges to the Church: The Call to Radical Nonconformity (1994)

Stott, John

Dr. Stott addresses the crucial subject of how we as Christian citizens of culturally diverse societies can represent the authority and grace of the Gospel in our everyday lives.

Order # JSF94 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Finding Career and Calling (2001)

Ashcroft, Mary Ellen

How do we listen to God in the midst of competing voices in ourselves and the world? Literature scholar Mary Ellen Ashcroft helps us think about attuning to God's call in our lives.

Order# VMEA01 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Forging Community in the Crucible of College (1999)

Phillips, Susan S.

Sociologist Susan Phillips reflects on the significance of community in her life as a student and teacher.

Order # VSP99 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Friends: Companions in Lives of Discipleship (1995)

Phillips, Susan S., Bonnie Howe, and Mary Naegeli

NCB speakers at a one-day women's retreat focus on Biblical stories of friendship and the importance of table fellowship in the New Testament church.

Order # MESI95 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Friendship in Biblical Perspective (1999)

Phillips, Susan S.

There is a longing in our hearts to know one another as friends and to cultivate friendship with God. This course explores biblical understandings of friendship that address those longings.

Order # FPWR99 Suggested donation $24.00 (4)

Living on Purpose: Finding God's Best for Our Lives (2004)

Sine, Tom & Christine

Tom and Christine Sine delineate how we as Christians can both discern God's purpose for us and develop creative ways to express it in our lives and congregations.

Order# SLP04 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

The Ministry of the Laity (2002)

Campolo, Tony

A discussion of how the Christian laity can live lives of daily ministry in the world.

Order# TCF02 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Reflections from the Marketplace (1994)

Stevens, Paul

From a consultation of the Coalition for Ministry in Daily Life hosted by NCB. Regent College Professor Paul Stevens brings theology to bear on marketplace issues.

Order # FSF94 Suggested Donation $12.00 (2)

Scripture in Everyday Life (2003)

Labberton, Mark

Pastor and scholar Mark Labberton examines how spending time with Scripture affects our walk with God.

Order# MLS03 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

What Are Christians Good For? (2002)

Peterson, Eugene

"We live in a culture in which we're defined by what we do. And if we don't do something useful, what are we good for?" Eugene Peterson addresses the purpose of Christianity in modern society.

Order# EPC02 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

ARTS

C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien: Friends, Writers, Mentors (2004)

Palmer, Earl

The works of Lewis and Tolkien captured truths about God, the world, and human nature that continue to impact our culture today. Earl Palmer examines the insights of these two friends.

Order# EPT04 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

C.S. Lewis: Mentor to the Poet in Each of Us (1997)

Palmer, Earl

Many of us have been profoundly influenced in our faith by C.S. Lewis. Rev. Palmer shows how this extraordinary lay Christian clearly articulated a vigorous, orthodox Christianity and continues to teach us today through his written works.

Order # EPSI97 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

Life in Frankenstein (1999)

Labberton, Mark

Mark Labberton delineates the lessons for our faith contained in Mary Shelley's classic horror story.

Order # VML99 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Faith and Film (1997, 1999)

Gallagher, Sharon

Before screenings at two Veritas Forums, Sharon Gallagher presented reviews of these significant films: Dead Man Walking and The Thin Red Line. Each movie raises issues important to people of faith.

Order# SGF0799 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

The Need to Pay Attention: Writers' Conference (2002)

Shaw, Luci

Prolific poet and writer Luci Shaw offers insights on how to write, express oneself in poetry, and publish what one has written.

Order# LSSU02 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

The Sense of an Ending: The Musical Self (2001)

Begbie, Jeremy

Professor Jeremy Begbie show us how we can learn much about faith and Christian hope through music.

Order# VJB01 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Surprised by Joy (1998)

Palmer, Earl, and Luci Shaw

Rev. Earl Palmer and poet Luci Shaw come together with New College Berkeley to celebrate the centenary of Lewis' birth. They have both studied Lewis, written about him and his work, and exemplify in their own lives the intelligent faith of C.S. Lewis.

Order # EPLS98 Suggested donation $24.00 (4)

Writers' Conference - A Goad, a Nail, and Scribbles in the Sand (1999)

Yancey, Philip

The author of What's So Amazing about Grace and many other Christian books discusses the vocation of writing.

Order # PYS99 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

CHRISTIAN ETHICSEthical Character: Reflections on the Beatitudes (2001)

Gill, David

Ethicist David Gill argues that character is a prime element in the realm of morality. For a starting point, he looks at Jesus' understanding of character as expressed in the Beatitudes.

Order# DGS01 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

Real Choices for Real People (2000)

Willard, Dallas

The renowned U.S.C. philosophy professor challenges modern-day academia by saying that the truth can be known.

Order # VDW00 Suggested Donation $6.00

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVESFor the Healing of Nations: Following Christ in a Time of AIDS (2004)

Ammann, Arthur J., Mary Ann McCoy, Ellen Schell, and Paul Tshihamba

Dr. Ammann and a group of physicians, nurses, medical missionaries, and ethicists discuss the roles of Christian healthcare professionals in the growing worldwide AIDS epidemic.

Order# AHN04 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

Hope for Human Rights (2000)

Haugen, Gary

Gary Haugen, Executive Director of the International Justice Mission, talks about the world's needs and calls for Christian involvement in justice issues.

Order# GHF0 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Is Peace Possible in the Middle East? (2002)

Lerner, Michael, Robin Wainwright, and Ben Weir

Three people of faith examine the current situation in the Middle East and what options exist for a peaceful solution.

Order# PCN02 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Understanding Afghanistan (2002)

Craig, Kathy and Steve

Two Christian relief and development workers who spent 18 years among Afghan refugees discuss the culture, religion and needs of the people of Afghanistan.

Order# AFGS02 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

NEW TESTAMENT STUDIESThe Book That James Wrote (1998)

Palmer, Earl

Rev. Palmer offers an exposition of the Book of James in its 1st century setting and its implications for 20th century Christians. This remarkable book of advice has special meaning for persons who want to understand the role of faith in life.

Order # EPS98 Suggested Donation $12.00 (2)

The Humor of Jesus: A 20th Century Reflection (2000)

Palmer, Earl

Rev. Palmer examines the kinds of humor present in the New Testament, relating its humor to Old Testament sources and to the experience of humor today.

Order # EPS00 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

The Passion and Death of Jesus: Issues Biblical, Historical, and Theological (1996)

Brown, Raymond E.

The four Gospel writers offer accounts of Jesus' crucifixion that differ significantly from one another in detail and theological outlook. Raymond E. Brown sifts through these difficult but fascinating passages for insights into their contemporary significance and the early Christian theological approach to Jesus' death.

Order # RBP096 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

The Meaning of Friendship: St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians (2003)

Palmer, Earl

Rev. Palmer brings St. Paul's final letter to the Church to bear on how we should consider our own friendships.

Order# EPF03 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

The Visited Planet: Studies in the Gospel of John (2001)

Palmer, Earl

Rev. Palmer teaches from the Gospel of John, which he describes as, "the most treasured book in the the Bible, and for good reason, because it draws us in close to the character of our Lord. Its relevance to us and our generation is as startling and important as it was to the first Christians who read John's account of his friend Jesus Christ."

Order# EPSP01 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES

Called to Discipleship: Cloud and Fire in the Wilderness (1994)

Hestenes, Roberta

Biblical exposition of the Book of Exodus encourages listeners that the Lord is present and seeks to guide us even when we are in the wilderness of confusion and despair, or simply overcommitted.

Order # RHS194 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

The Power of Prophecy (1993)

Andersen, Francis

Prophecy provides a point for authentic interaction between God and humans. God speaks, people hear, and those who hear make choices. Premier Old Testament scholar Francis Andersen illuminates the subject of prophecy.

Order # FAF93 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

PSYCHOLOGY

Cults: The Hidden Menace in Our Everyday Lives (1995)

Singer, Margaret

Psychologist Margaret Singer became interested in forms of "coercive persuasion" through her work with Korean War POWs. Since then she has used her expertise to treat victims of cults. Dr. Singer examines the ways in which seemingly reasonable people can be drawn into cult activity.

Order # MSF95 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

Faith and Psychological Health (2002)

Singer, Margaret

Dr. Margaret Singer addresses how psychological health in individuals or groups is enhanced by faith or distorted by unhealthy beliefs or practices.

Order# MSD02 Suggested Donation $12.00 (2)

Psychological Healing (2002)

Alter, Peggy, Mack Goldsmith, and Marty Stewart

Three Christian therapists talk about the healing process.

Dr. Goldsmith examines Spirituality, Spiritual Direction, and Psychotherapy; Dr. Peggy Alter discusses Psychological Healing and the Prophetic Voice: A Clinician's Perspective; and Marty Stewart, MFT, looks at Recovery: A Faith Journey.

Order# PHF02 Suggested Donation $6.00 (1)

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

The Gift and Work of Worship (2004)

Labberton, Mark

Rev. Labberton examines how worship affects our theology and can bring joy and humanity to our practice of the faith.

Order# GWL04 Suggested Donation $12.00 (2)

Listening for God's Call (1994)

Labberton, Mark

Scripture, tradition, community, and personal experience together design a grid through which we discern God's will. How do we listen to these many voices? How do we hear and respond to God's call?

Order # MLSI294 Suggested Donation $24.00 (4)

So Many "Calls," So Little Time (1994)

Hestenes, Roberta

Dr. Hestenes explains how Christian women can face the challenges of living faithfully in many roles.

Order # RHS1942 Suggested Donation $18.00 (3)

Spirituality Conference (2001)

Phillips, Susan S., Dorothy Williams, Evan Howard

Three speakers offer a distinctly Christian approach to living lives attuned to the spiritual. They focus on Christocentric spirituality, ways that communities can grow in justice, and spiritual practices that can foster our relationship with God.

Order# SCS01 Suggested Donation $18.00 (3)

Where Is God When It Hurts? (1995)

Andersen, Lois and Francis

Life is difficult for everyone, including Christians. How do we follow Jesus' "way of suffering" as the way of life and peace? Francis and Lois Andersen attempt to answer this question, based on a study of the book of Hebrews.

Questions? Contact us at (510) 841-9386, or by e-mail at newcollege@aol.com. You can also check our website for current course listings at www.newcollegeberkeley.org.